

Basic Team Building Package

Mission Possible has prepared a Basic Team Building Package that we will run at a location of the client's choosing. A list of our modules with descriptions can be downloaded here...

The final format and timing will depend on the number of members engaged in the Team Building. Processing for each module will follow the Kaisen methodology which you can see more about here....

We also offer a customized Team Building package that can include our Battlefield Live combat game, more information here.... This is a completely safe game which uses infra-red technology similar to the American Military live training system. It is like playing "Counterstrike" but in real life and is an excellent Team Building tool.
